It is not known on what grounds the Revenue Commr. knows that persons can now sell grains without licenses?

I think the rule goes automatically when no max prices are fixed no notification necessary licenses to be cancelled.

OFFICE OF THE REVENUE COMMISSIONER
IN MYSORE.

Bangalore, 19th February 191 9

My dear Balasundaram Iyer,

The Vice President of the Bangalore City Municipality expressed a doubt yesterday as to whether merchants are still required to obtain licenses under Rule 4 of the Rules issued with Notification No.C.4337/C.R.134-18-31 dated 23rd November 1918 for carrying on their business. I gave him an answer in the negative. As however in the absence of an express order or Notification cancelling the above Rule, the same doubt is likely to be entertained by other officers, I would suggest that a formal Notification may be issued cancelling Rules 4 to 7 (and also Rule 1) of the Rules published with the above Notification.

Yours sincerely,

C.P. Rama...

Sir,

With reference to your D.O. letter no 104 dated 19th Feb 1919 addressed to Mr Balasundaram Iyer suggesting that a notification may be issued Cancelling rules 1 and 4 to 7 of the Rules published with notification G 9337/PP/134-18-21 dated 23rd Nov 1918, I am directed to state that Govt consider that no notification is necessary since these rules lose their effect automatically with the abolition of the order fixing maximum prices for wholesale and retail sales.
